

WaveMaker
PRESS LTD

Table of Contents

- 2 In Our Traditional Territory by Monica Weaver, Maedeh Mosaverzadeh
- 3 Love Your Creator: The Story of a Prayer Song by Quuia Charleson, Stefan Brunette
- 4 Indigenous Art Colouring & Activity Book by Migwan
- 5 A Dance Through the Seasons by Leona Prince, Carla Joseph
- 6 A Dance Through the Seasons by Leona Prince, Carla Joseph

In Our Traditional Territory

By (author) Monica Weaver 🇨🇦, Illustrated by Maedeh Mosaverzadeh 🇨🇦
 Dec 30, 2022 | Paperback, Trade | $19.95

On the river, beaver smacks his tail, the salmon swim, and a family pulls in the catch. As a member of her community, six-year-old Monica participates in the traditional salmon harvest among the picturesque scenery, cold mornings, warm fires, and extended family.

9781777894719

- English
- Colour illustrations
- 8.25 x 8.25 x 0.15 in | 145 gr
- 36 pages

Subject

JUVENILE NONFICTION / People & Places / Canada / Indigenous

Audience range

Age (years) from 3 - 7

Distributor

WaveMaker Press

Expected ship date: Dec 30, 2022

Carton Quantity: 40

Contributor Bio

Monica Weaver is from Lake Babine Nation and grew up in a small town. She loved going on different outdoor adventures. The trip to Babine Lake is still a favourite of hers. Monica found a passion for writing stories in her previous position as an elementary school Aboriginal Education Support Worker. Monica holds tradition close to her heart and wrote this story to reflect her memories of practicing shared traditions with her Grandmother. Monica resides on the traditional territory of the Saik'uz First Nation.

Love Your Creator

The Story of a Prayer Song

By (author) Quuia Charleson 🇨🇦, Illustrated by Stefan Brunette 🇨🇦

Aug 30, 2022 | Paperback, Trade | $20.95

This is the true story behind a song that was once a hymn remembered from residential school. With the help of his family and community, especially the determination of his son, and encouraging words of his Grandmother, Knowledge Keeper Quuia Charleson, (Nuu-Chah-Nulth) has reclaimed Love Your Creator and continues to share both the song and its story through oral tradition at events and on travels. Engaging illustrations by Stefan Brunette passionately portray the people and events in this exciting picture book for all ages. Discover the story and learn the strength of a song.

9781777894726

- English
- Colour illustrations
- 10 x 8 x 0.15 in | 145 gr
- 36 pages

Subject

JUVENILE NONFICTION / Family / Multigenerational

Audience range

Age (years) from 5 - 12

Distributor

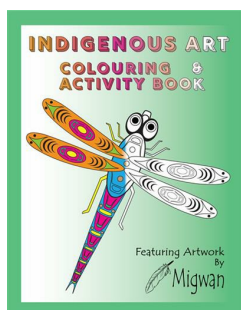

WaveMaker Press

Expected ship date: Aug 31, 2022

Carton Quantity: 40

Contributor Bio

Quuia Charleson loves storytelling, a gift he inherited from his Grandmother. Since 2007, he has been working to bring cultural connection, teaching, and prayer to youth and families. Greg has seven children and two grandchildren and resides on Snuneymexw Territory with his wife, Caroline, and two of their children. Stefan Brunette was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba, where he pursued his passion for art and storytelling from a young age. His family moved across the prairies, finally finding roots just outside of Calgary, Alberta, where he graduated with a B.A. in English, then earned his education degree. After he and his wife made their home on Treaty 7 territory, in High River, they started a family. With fatherhood as his muse, he turns memorable events into works of art.

Indigenous Art Colouring & Activity Book

Drawings by Migwan

Mar 01, 2022 | Paperback, Saddle-sewn | $10.95

Playful scenes and line art ranging from simple to mildly complex will capture the interest of children with a variety of interests and abilities.

9781777894702

- English
- 20 Indigenous art line drawing for children to colour.
- 8.5 x 11 in | 200 gr
- 22 pages

Subject

JUVENILE NONFICTION / Activity Books / Coloring

Audience range

Age (years) from 5 - 12

Distributor

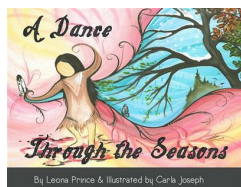

WaveMaker Press

Expected ship date: Mar 01, 2022

Carton Quantity: 40

Contributor Bio

Migwan is Don Bonner, son of Douglas and Carol Bonner. He is a member of the Shabot Obaadjiwan First Nation, part of the Bear Clan of the Algonquin Nation. He uses multiple methods of creating contemporary art that draws inspiration from traditional styles. Don is grateful to the People of Snuneymuxw, on whose traditional lands he currently lives. He is grateful for the honour of working with local Elders and Knowledge Keepers in the pursuit of developing his art. Don finds inspiration from his mentors and the natural surroundings of the west coast.

A Dance Through the Seasons

2nd edition

By (author) Leona Prince 🇨🇦, Illustrated by Carla Joseph 🇨🇦

Dec 01, 2021 | Paperback, Trade | $19.95 |

This story is about the journey of Young Woman and Turtle. They move through the seasons together and Young Woman learns that growing up takes patience and time. Leadership comes from within, but it also comes from listening to the world around you. A Dance Through the Seasons not only leads you through the story of one girl's path, but also through the seasonal rounds of the Dakelh (Carrier) people of British Columbia.

Contributor Bio

Leona Prince is a Dakelh woman, member of the Lake Babine Nation and belongs to the Likh Tsa Mis Yu Clan. She is a descendant of Stiche and Chief Kwah. She is the mother of three amazing children and is a passionate award-winning educator. In 2017, she was awarded the Alumni of the Year award for Professional Excellence by the Alumni Association of UNBC, her alma mater. She also received an Inspire Award for Educational Leadership at the 2018 Guiding the Journey Educator Awards.

9 781777 894740

Also Available

Be a Good Ancestor (Hardcover)
Leona Prince
9781459831407
$21.95
May 17, 2022

9781777894740

- English
- 25 Stunning colours are painted on canvas by acclaimed artist Carla Joseph.
- 11 x 8.5 x 0.14 in | 210 gr
- 56 pages

Subject

JUVENILE FICTION / People & Places / Canada / Indigenous

Audience range

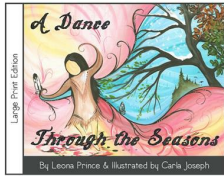

Age (years) from 7 - 12

Distributor

WaveMaker Press

Expected ship date: Dec 08, 2021

Carton Quantity: 45

A Dance Through the Seasons

2nd edition

By (author) Leona Prince , Illustrated by Carla Joseph

Dec 01, 2021 | Spiral bound , Wire-O | $24.95 |

This story is about the journey of Young Woman and Turtle. They move through the seasons together and Young Woman learns that growing up takes patience and time. Leadership comes from within, but it also comes from listening to the world around you. A Dance Through the Seasons not only leads you through the story of one girl's path, but also through the seasonal rounds of the Dakelh (Carrier) people of British Columbia.

Contributor Bio

Leona Prince is a Dakelh woman, member of the Lake Babine Nation and belongs to the Likh Tsa Mis Yu Clan. She is a descendant of Stiche and Chief Kwah. She is the mother of three amazing children and is a passionate award-winning educator. In 2017, she was awarded the Alumni of the Year award for Professional Excellence by the Alumni Association of UNBC, her alma mater. She also received an Inspire Award for Educational Leadership at the 2018 Guiding the Journey Educator Awards.

9 781777 894733

Also Available

Be a Good Ancestor
(Hardcover)

Leona Prince

9781459831407

$21.95

May 17, 2022

9781777894733

- English
- 25 Stunning colours scanned from acrylic painting on canvas by acclaimed artist Carla Joseph.
- 11 x 8.5 x 0.28 in | 300 gr
- 56 pages

Subject

JUVENILE FICTION / People & Places / Canada / Indigenous

Audience range

Age (years) from 7 - 12

Distributor

WaveMaker Press

Expected ship date: Dec 08, 2021

Carton Quantity: 45